All donations made to the ACA above our parish goal are returned directly back to our parish for operations and improvements.

We ask that you refrain from wearing articles of clothing that might be considered too revealing or inappropriate. Stewardship Reflection

In today's Gospel passage, from Luke, we read the well-known parable of the Good Samaritan. Here, Jesus teaches us in rich detail what stewardship in action looks like. In fact, this parable could just as accurately be called the parable of the Good Steward.

The first thing we note about the Good Samaritan is that he is aware of the needs of those around him and responds generously. While the priest and Levi brush right past the man on the side of the road, the Samaritan is watching for those who might be in need. He has a hospitable way of looking at the world around him and so he is able to "see" in a way that the others did not, and he was "moved with compassion at the sight" of the man.

Next, we see the Good Samaritan spring into action to serve this man, setting aside his own schedule and plans to meet his needs. He does not just give the man a few dollars or offer quick words of encouragement from across the road. He goes right up to the man. He cleans and bandages his wounds. He puts the man on his own animal and brings him to an inn where he can heal. He ensures the innkeeper would continue to look after him, and he commits to returning to the man on his way back.

That is how we live out God's commandments. That is true hospitality and service. That is how a good steward springs into action when he comes upon a neighbor in need. And Jesus says to each of us personally, just as He did in today's Gospel, "Go and do likewise."

RESERVE A MASS FOR YOUR LOVED ONES

Having Masses said for a loved one at The Church of Holy Innocents is a noble way to honor a deceased person. We encourage all Catholics to properly mourn the loss of a cherished relation or friend by having a mass said in our parish.

Donations are as follows:

Announced Masses	$20.00
Purgatorial Masses	$30.00
Bread & Wine	$50.00
